prices, and although these represent only a very small percentage of the dry goods interest, yet their apparent anxiety to sell exerts a depressing influence upon the market, while the fact that they are willing to make some reduction from prices current at this induces the same policy upon the trade generally. The reaction of prices since the commencement of the week is swelling the cause enumerated rather than to any lack of confidence in the future. The outlook for any material change in the prices of cotton, and as the market for cotton fabric is controlled to a greater or less degree by the price of cotton as well as by the supply and demand for the fabric.

BROOKLYN INTELLIGENCE.

SHOOTING AFRAY—A MAN SHOT BY HIS STRON-SON.—The boarding house No. 95 Graham street near Myrtle avenue, kept by Mrs. Nelson, came being the scene of a tragedy shortly before twenty o'clock on Saturday night. Nell Nelson, the husband of Miss Nelson, being shot by the second Peter McCuen, his stepson. From the statements of several parties in the house it appears that Nelson in hand of Miss Nelson, had been quarreling sometimes under the influence of liquor and beating his wife in the most inhuman manner. McCuen, whom Nelson had married, was a young man who had always interloped and saved his mother from the scoldings of his stepfather. During the past week Mc-son has occasionally suffered greatly from his abuse. On Saturday night he was drinking in the honor store of E. Madden, and when at a late hour he started to leave the place he was told by the proprietor to go and "to whip his wife and raise the devil." As soon as he reached his house he made a violent assault on Mrs. Nelson and a younger son went out to the aid of his mother. The father then threatened to order his stepfather to assist, and endeavored to save his mother from injury. Nelson, in his rage, attacked both his wife and son, when the latter drew a knife and cut his hand. The father then turned against Nelson's left jaw and lodging some blows in the neck. His jaw was severely fractured. But his injuries are not considered of a fatal character. Since his escape from the house and his removal since been seen.

ATTENTED SUICIDE.—Mrs. Edith Blackwell, wife of Henry Blackwell, who keeps a dry goods store at the corner of Third Avenue and Sixteenth street, attempted to commit suicide on Saturday night by taking a dose of arsenic. The first course of treatment to the knowledge of some of the inmates of the house, who thought she had taken the poison, a neighboring physician was summoned. Dr. J. W. Fox, of the city, on Saturday, placed the unhappy woman beyond danger. The cause which prompted her to take the life is said to be some slight domestic trouble.
